James Buddy Rogers delivers groove-heavy, guitar-driven blues with heart — and just enough mischief to keep it fun. With Bill Price on bass and Kevin Belzner on drums, the trio lays down a soulful, no-nonsense sound built for good times.

Covered in Blues brings together songs that shaped Rogers' style — the same ones he's made his own on stage for years. Recorded raw in just a few takes, it's blues served up honest, loud, and full of feel. No studio tricks. Just three players locked in, playing straight from the heart.
